Q

A

- Reminder - Wanna buy an official waterproof-ish copy of the Stairs Map? Queen Anne Books (1811 Queen Anne Ave N) is a friendly place.
- Reminder - Good conveyor belt sushi is available at Sushiland (803 5th Ave N). - Keep In Mind - Walking stairs is good for you.

THINGS TO AVOID

1. Cars. Don't get hit by a car. Listen to your Mother & look both ways before crossing the street.
2. Falling. Don't crack your noggin. Watch your footing on those stairs. They can be uneven at the best of times and downright slippery in the rain/snow.

- Reminder - While you're out and about, do you see a problem with the stairs? Please contact S.D.O.T. at www.seattle.gov/transportation/contact.htm
they're charged with maintaining the stairs in Seattle. - Did You Know - Stair #51 is missing from this map too

- Don't Miss - The Galer Crown (472) the highest stair on Queen Anne Hill! - Reminder - 5 Spot (1502 Queen Anne Ave N) is always a solid choice, breakfast, lunch or dinner. - Did You Know - Queen Anne High got it's mascot from a Grizzly Bear that was spotted on Queen Anne Hill.
